Carrie George - President

Carrie was the Director of the Kremmling Chamber from February of 2001 to March 2004. Carrie now works as an agent for Omni Real Estate in Kremmling. She is originally from the Denver area, and has a degree in Fine Arts from the University of Colorado at Boulder. In 2000 she lived in London, England for six months and worked for an environmental education company. Carrie loves living in Kremmling because of the people, scenery, and close knit community. Carrie lives at Shadow Creek Ranch with her husband Bill George.

Kara Stout - Vice-President

Kara Stout, principal of Stouthouse Design, has been a graphic designer in Colorado since 1999 – creating logos, branding systems, marketing collateral, invitations and signage for clients nationwide. She's been active in design education and taught graphic design at Metropolitan State College of Denver. Kara has been on the Chamber board since August 2005. She and her family are excited to be a part of the Kremmling community.

Carol Wilson - Treasurer

Carol Wilson is the owner of The Cornerstone Company, serving Kremmling with custom log furniture and stone masonry services. She and her husband, David, recently relocated from Florida, where they were successful in the construction field for over two decades. Carol is eager to see and help implement positive community growth, and looks forward to working with the Chamber to promote economic stability for the local business community.

Monika Cary - Secretary

Monika Cary was raised in a military family and traveled extensively. She is of German heritage. She has lived in Colorado since 1971, is married to Tom Cary, has 4 children and 2 ½ grandchildren. Monika and Tom have lived on Gore Pass since 2002. Monika was first female president of the Arvada Jaycees, and was a member from 1987 to 1995. She volunteers in the community and church and is an expert in legal videography. In the winter, Tom and Monika plow snow for residents of Old Park.

Kim Douglass - Board Member

Kim Douglass is owner of Cliffside Inn and the River of Life Cabins. She has a degree in restaurant and hotel management. Kim has been in the Kremmling area for thirteen years and is originally from Minnesota. Kim has been on the Chamber board for eight years and is a very generous and active community and Chamber member.
